

Principles of Accounting (PA)

classmate

Date _____
Page _____

Unit - I Introduction to Accounting, definitions, objectives, functions and importance of accounting, Accounting has a information system, accounting, book keeping, classification of various uses of accounting information, types of accounting, financial case, management accounting, accounting term transaction, account, liability, assets, capital, expenditure, expense, income, profit, loss, debit & credit assignment Unit - II Accounting Principles stick file.

concepts and conventions of accounting principles, nature, meaning and significance of accounting, concepts and conventions, entity concept, buying concept, money measurement concept, accounting period concept, duality concept, cost concept and realization concept, accounting conventions, materiality conservative full disclosure and consistency

Unit - III Meaning of Accounting cycle, ~~basics~~ of recording and classification of accounts and rules of Debit and credit ~~the~~ classification of books of accounts, journal, subsidiary books and ledgers passing of journal entries, preparation of ledger, balancing of accounts, debit and credit balance, preparation, trial balance, simple problems relating to individual & partnership forms

Unit - IV Preparation of annual accounts and types manufacturing trading, profit and loss account, balance sheet, format of balance sheet as per liquidity performance of principles, preparation of financial statements of individual and partnership forms

2-19